The United States Mint reserves the right to accept or reject orders in any combination or option(s) it determines to be in its best interest. In the event a particular product option is sold out, the United States Mint reserves the right to either process partial orders and make refunds or return orders in their entirety.

Notice to Customers Making a Payment by Check: If you send us a check, it may be converted into an electronic funds transfer (EFT). This means we will copy your check and use the account information on it to electronically debit your account for the amount of the check. The debit from your account will usually occur within 24 hours and will be shown on your account statement. You will not receive your original check back. We will destroy your original check, but we will keep the copy of it. If the EFT cannot be processed for technical reasons, you authorize us to process the copy in place of your original check. If the EFT cannot be completed because of insufficient funds, we may try to make the transfer up to two (2) times.
