Take a Peek at Our Web Site!

The United States Mint H.I.P. Pocket Change™ Web site is the hippest way to introduce children to the world of numismatics!

Kids and coin collecting go hand in hand! That's why we designed The United States Mint H.I.P. Pocket Change Web site specifically with kids in mind. Whether at home or at school, children can explore all the animated games, coin-related cartoons, and informational features that this site has to offer. And parents and teachers can revel in the multitude of free cross-curricular lesson plans and other educational resources available at H.I.P. Pocket Change. This site brings to life both the extraordinary individuals who appear on U.S. coinage and the generations of citizens who have carried history in their pockets!
