

Scavenger Hunt—France (Key)

Scavenger Hunt Answers

1. The obverses (front) of all Euros look the same, just like quarters in the United States. The reverses (back) of all Euros have images that represent the European Union countries and the reverses of the quarters produced through the 50 State Quarters® Program have images that represent states.
2. When the French used francs, 100 centimes equaled 1 franc.
3. The French Mint is called Monnaie de Paris.
4. The Mona Lisa hangs in the Louvre, a former palace that is now considered one of the world's greatest art museums.
5. French school children receive 2 hours for lunch.
6. A government ruled by a king is a monarchy.
7. Thomas Jefferson was inspired in part by French philosophers when he wrote the Declaration of Independence. France loaned money to the United States to fund the revolutionary war. A French nobleman the Marquis de Lafayette helped the military during the war.