

Name _____

Scavenger Hunt—New Zealand

Directions: Kia Ora! (That's hello in Maori [MOW-ree] the language of New Zealand) Get ready for a new adventure! You will visit the country of New Zealand and learn about its history, culture and currency (past and present).

Coin Section

What is the smallest denomination of New Zealand paper money? _____.

Commemorative coins in the United States, like the John Marshall Silver Dollar, would be called _____ in New Zealand.

New Zealand was first discovered by _____, the native people of the South Pacific islands who also settled in Hawaii.

In New Zealand, these people became known as _____ and lived in tribes like many Native American people for hundreds of years.

Which New Zealand coin has the kotuku bird on it?

Geography

In which ocean is New Zealand located? _____

What is the weather like in New Zealand in July? _____ Explain why this is different than ours:

What is the capital of New Zealand? Where is it located? _____

What is the Garden City? Where is it located? _____

School

_____ is a popular sport played at school in New Zealand.

Famous Features

Draw and color New Zealand's flag in the box.

What do the stars on the flag represent? _____

How many miles of coastline does New Zealand have? _____.

What nickname do people from New Zealand use to call themselves?

List 2 facts about the kiwi, a bird that lives in New Zealand

1. _____
2. _____

About how many sheep can be found in New Zealand? _____

Holiday

Waitangi (wai-TANG-ee) Day is New Zealand's national holiday. What does it celebrate?

Character Section

Where is Inspector Collector? _____

Give additional information about his location

What is Goldie doing? _____

List 2 facts about the 50-cent New Zealand coin

1. _____
2. _____

Where is Plinky? _____

What coin celebrates 100 years of motoring in New Zealand?

What is Bill doing? _____

Why is it said that the Polynesians of the South Pacific invented this fun filled activity?

Where is Nero enjoying his afternoon? _____.

The most popular ice cream flavor is _____.

Why is Queen Elizabeth on most New Zealand coins? _____

What is Flip looking at? _____.

What are Tiki charms supposed to bring to the person that wears them?

_____.